

Operational Policy

The Principal shall not cause or allow any practice, activity or decision that is unethical, unlawful, and imprudent or which violates the board's charter or expressed values or commonly held professional ethic.

Delegations to the Principal

The key areas of contribution are to:

- Meet the requirements of their current job description
- Meet the requirements of the Principal's Professional Standards
- Act as the education leader of the school
- Maintain the internal culture including the special character
- Manage the school effectively on a day-to-day basis within the law and in line with board policies.
- Implement the (annual) operational plans and give priority to the school's annual targets.
- Use resources efficiently.
- Put good employer policies into effect.
- Oversee teacher appraisals and staff professional development.
- Hire, deploy and terminate relieving and auxiliary staff positions
- Preserve assets (financial and property)
- Communicate with the community on operational matters
- Keep the board informed of information important to their role.
- Report to the board on the compliance with their policies.
- Organise operations within the boundaries of prudence and ethics established in board policies on Operations

- Appoint, on behalf of the board, the Privacy Officer and EEO Officer.
- Seek approval from the Board for any leave requests over 1 week.
- Act as Child Protection Office (as per Child Protection Policy)

Only decisions made by the board acting as a board are binding on the Principal. Decisions or instructions of individual board members, portfolio holders or committees are not binding on the Principal except in rare circumstances when the board has specifically authorised it

The relationship is one of trust and support. Both parties work to ensure 'no-surprises'. The Principal is not restricted from using the expert knowledge of individual board members acting as volunteers.

Principal's Performance Appraisal

The Principal's performance is monitored against the strategic plan, professional standards and board policies on Operations.

The board monitors those parts of the Principal's objectives that have been identified and agreed upon by both parties in advance.

There will be an agreed time established when board chairperson (or (designated person or committee) and the Principal meet to carry out formal appraisal based on agreed criteria. The format and process for this meeting will be negotiated and agreed upon by the board chairperson/delegate and the principal.

The Board will receive a summary report, formally once a year at a board meeting that has "excluded the public".

Disciplinary Process

In the event the board determines that policy violation(s) has (have) occurred and the board judges the degree and seriousness of the violation(s) to warrant initiating a disciplinary process, the board shall seek advice and follow due process.

Principal Professional Expenses

A budget for professional expenses and for professional development will be established annually.

These expenses may include continuing education, books and periodicals, and attendance at professional conferences.

Reporting to the Board (as Limitations)

The principal reports to the board as a whole and keeps it informed of the true and accurate position of the outcomes of programmes and services; financial position; and all matters having real or potential legal considerations for our school. Thus the board is supported in its strategic decision-making and risk management. Therefore, the principal will:
